208, PARLIAMENT HOUSE ANNEXE,
NEW DELHI.

RS. 13/11/2018-G.A. (Welfare)

Dated the 7th February 2018

CIRCULAR

Late Shri Tapas Das Gupta retired from the post of Joint Secretary of this Secretariat on 31st January 2005 and expired on 2nd January 2007 due to cancer in AIIMS, New Delhi. The cost of treatment was so exorbitant that even after substantial reimbursement under the CGHS Rules, the part payment that he had been bearing drained him out financially. He had already exhausted his savings and other sources of raising funds including borrowings from his friends and relatives. Subsequent to his death, his wife late Shrimati Sagarika Das Gupta was granted family pension and his unmarried daughter Kumari Rupali Das Gupta was included in P.P.O. by extending the scope of family pension to unmarried daughter of the pensioner. Now, since Smt. Das Gupta has expired on 21st January 2018 leaving behind her daughter Kumari Rupali Das Gupta, it would take some time in transferring the family pension in the name of the daughter of late Shri Tapas Das Gupta, Joint Secretary (Retd.). The financial condition of daughter of late Shri Das Gupta is presently very miserable.

2. In the above circumstances She is in need of a financial support . In order to extend financial support to her, the Welfare Unit has decided to carry out a collection drive for the said cause, till a family pension ( extended scope of family pension) is granted.

3. All Officials of the Secretariat are, therefore, requested to contribute generously to extend financial help to the unmarried daughter of late Shri Das Gupta at this hour of her deep distress through the Welfare Unit (Shri Ram Lakhan Yadav, Welfare Assistant, Room No.208, PHA).
